

March 13, 2006

Dear Sir/Madam

In realization of the project “GENDER EQUALITY IN BUILDING UP INFORMATION SOCIETY”, supported by the Fund for Open Society in Serbia, NGO “Equal Opportunities”, Belgrade is preparing the panel discussion on:

“GENDER EQUALITY IN BUILDING UP INFORMATION SOCIETY - Guidelines, check lists and proposals for initiating of projects in the implementation process of NSIS in Serbia”.

The goal Aim of this panel is to initiate broad discussion of relevant gender and civil society groups on proposed Guidelines, check lists and examples of the best practice. Draft documents, prepared by NGO “Equal Opportunities” will be used as a basis for panel discussion. Participants are encouraged to actively discuss and make that will provide valuable inputs for finalization of the project. The aim is to make the recommendations for the incorporation of gender equality principle in the process of implementation of the National Strategy for Information Society - NSIS, through sector policies and ICT projects.

Panel will be held on 06. April 2006 in Belgrade, in conference room 128, Faculty of Traffic and Transport Engineering, Belgrade, Vojvode Stepe 305 at 11:00 a.m.

In order to get prepared for the discussion, participants will receive e-copy of draft documents one week before the panel. The discussion will be held in Serbian language.

If you are interested to participate in this panel please send e-mail to jednake@e-jednakost.org.yu or call +381 63 8801409.

Sincerely Yours,

NGO “Equal opportunities”

Prof. dr Nataša Gospić

President